Our Vision

The University of Saskatchewan Students' Union strives to be the recognized leader in enhancing the student experience.

Our Mission

The University of Saskatchewan Students' Union exists to represent, serve, and support the academic and non-academic needs of undergraduate students of the University of Saskatchewan through accountable, dynamic, and unified leadership. It also serves to protect and maintain the integrity of quality accessible public education.

Our Values

The following principles shall guide the University of Saskatchewan Students' Union in all of its endeavours: innovation; integrity; mutual respect; professionalism; service; social, economic, and environmental responsibility; teamwork; and trust.

President's Message Max FineDay

The Executive of the University of Saskatchewan Students' Union were elected on goals to make the University of Saskatchewan more affordable and accessible, address problems and solutions for mental health initiatives, and defend student interests. The short term in office of any student union executive provides a significant challenge when trying to accomplish change, but the 2013-2014 USSU Executive were able to accomplish many of our goals.

“...after many meetings, presentation, statistics, and testimonials, we were successful.”

The student mental health crisis was impossible to ignore on our campus, nine out of ten University of Saskatchewan students have reported feeling overwhelmed, anxiety, depression, and the increasing pressures placed on students led to the Executive lobbying for a first term reading week. We worked with many campus partners to bring attention to the often-overlooked issue of student mental health. We came to the conclusion that students need a break in the first term for the same reason there is a break in the second term – stress reduction. This was met at first with hesitation from administration, as there are many complexities involved in adding a week without classes, but after many meetings, presentation, statistics, and testimonials, we were successful. We now have a first term reading week in the academic calendar for the week of Remembrance Day. Students continue to see the cost of education rise at a dramatic rate. While tuition is a significant portion of that cost, and one that the USSU continues to lobby the provincial government and university administration on, there was an opportunity born out of an innovative project in British Columbia. The Open Textbook project is dedicated to providing quality textbooks in a variety of disciplines online for students at no cost. Preliminary conversations with the provincial government and university administration have been positive. We've had one faculty adoption in AGRC 113, Agri-Food Issues and Institutions, this adoption will save students over $14,000 per term. We continue to look for faculty to adopt textbooks and save students even more in the future.

“...spoke out against the proposed cuts to student services, programming, and the severely misguided process.”

TransformUS dominated our campus in 2013-2014 and rightly so took up much of the Executive's time. It was a deeply flawed process that left out the voices of students and student representatives. University Students' Council, the Executive, along with many other student society presidents' spoke out against the proposed cuts to student services, programming, and the severely misguided process. Ultimately, the President of the university was dismissed and the Provost and Vice-President Academic resigned. The Interim-President has halted TransformUS and continues to work with the USSU to hear our concerns regarding our university, its reputation and students' needs.

I would like to thank all undergraduate students for the opportunity to serve as your president and I encourage all students to learn more about the USSU and how it can positively impact their experience at the U of S.

General Manager's Message

Caroline Cottrell

The University of Saskatchewan Students' Union continues to thrive in concert with, and mirroring, the on-going growth in undergraduate student numbers at our university. A significant increase in students of First Nations origin, as well as a growing number of international students, have complemented and added to the general expansion in numbers as a result of very significant population growth in Saskatoon. I am very pleased to report that the USSU has been able to manage program growth and expansion and increased demand for services without having to add to our staff, thus keeping our commitment to run as efficiently as we possibly can.

By creating efficiencies through both job melding and job separation, we have managed to reduce our core staff by a couple of full time positions over the course of the past five years, while continuing to provide our growing population with increased services.

“...the USSU has been able to manage program growth and expansion and increased demand for services...”

One of the most exciting new services to come to the USSU in 2013 was the opening of Louis' Loft. This venue's first event was a reception for the Association of Managers in Canadian College and Student Unions four day National Professional Conference which the USSU hosted. The conference entitled Running Back to Saskatoon was a huge success. Part of that success was the opening reception, which allowed us to showcase the brand new space. Since opening, Louis' Loft has become a thriving coffee and specialty sandwich shop by day and a very significant special event, wedding, catering business at night and on weekends. Most importantly though, Louis' Loft is providing a venue and services for campus clubs to do events, fund-raisers, meetings, and functions and in doing so is supplementing the services already provided by Louis'.

On a less happy note, this was also the year where collectively the USSU made the final decision to stop providing photocopying services on campus. Copy Central continued its decline in usage and the decision to no longer subsidize the service by the USSU was made. The University of Saskatchewan agreed to take full responsibility for the installation and maintenance of new card-activated copy machines in core locations across campus in order to meet students' needs.

2013-14 witnessed increasing cooperation by the Centre Coordinators in putting on a wide variety of events, whether individually or collectively the Food Centre, Help Centre, Pride Centre, Women's Centre and Student Crew/Safewalk undertook a remarkable number of events aimed at both educating and entertaining while continuing with their primary mandate of supporting all students, regardless of gender identity, sexuality, nationality or health status.

“...a remarkable number of events aimed at both educating and entertaining...”

I consider myself to be extremely fortunate in having a staff who have been with the organization for a significant amount of time and who are truly excellent at their respective jobs. Moreover, they are committed to the fulfilling the needs of undergraduate students at the University of Saskatchewan to their best of their abilities and to do so with enthusiasm and creativity, always keeping in mind the fiscal responsibilities attendant upon the use of student dollars.

It remains a joy for me to work as the General Manager of the USSU and to lead the management side of the organization, while working closely with the Executive and the Members of University Student Council.

Submitted with respect,

Caroline Cottrell
General Manager

USSU Operations

Louis'

The prime destination for University of Saskatchewan students and friends to eat, drink and see their favourite live acts perform. 2013-14 was a very successful year for Louis' with over 1.75 million in sales from May to April. The fall was highlighted by record attendance in the Bowl and busy Welcome Week concerts. Louis' continued the busy year by hosting a sold out wedding season, catering to students with an extensive menu, nightly promotions, and a wide variety of entertainment.

Louis' continued to grow business outside of the walls of the Memorial Union Building with busy event catering orders across campus. Louis' also continued to provide food and beverage services at Griffith Stadium for events ranging from Huskie Football games to track and field meets.

Louis' Loft

Louis' Loft is the new member of the USSU family located in the renovated space on the second floor of the Memorial Union building. A bustling coffee shop featuring Museo and Fair Trade coffee by day and a reception, wedding, banquet venue at night and on weekends.

Customers have their choice of fresh baking done in-house or by our friends at Wild Serendipity. Our new menu also features a variety of premium panini's, sandwiches, pizzas and snacks. We are also proud to serve local draught beer from Great Western, Paddockwood, and Saskatoon Brewery, as well as spirits from Lucky Bastard Distilleries.

The year of operation was a success with sales outpacing budget by over 20%. Numerous student groups, campus departments, and other organizations booked the Loft space for their special events, banquets, and functions throughout the year. The response to the room was overwhelming and we are confident that the Loft business will continue to grow in the years to come.

XL Print & Design

XL Print & Design enjoyed continued success due to positive word of mouth and a welcoming location on the main floor of the Memorial Union Building. Revenues continued to grow and the outlook for XL is strong as the business continues to provide a valuable service that also turns a profit for the USSU.

XL Print & Design specializes in wide format printing, colour copying and graphic design. XL offers wide format colour printing of up to 5 feet and carries various types of media such as matte paper, photo gloss, vinyl, canvas and sticker paper. XL can also print black and white wide format of up to 3 feet for the budget conscious, and can provide design for event posters, invitations, business cards, research posters, and many other products.

Information Centre

The Information Centre had continued success in its central location on the main floor of the Place Riel Student Centre. In co-operation with USSU reception they are truly the front door to the U of S campus. Together they satisfy students' needs for U-Pass stickers or opt-outs, housing advertising, CHEP good food boxes, club insurance, show tickets, STC bus tickets, table rentals, and countless directions to other parts of campus.

USSU Centres

The University of Saskatchewan Students' Union operates a number of centres for enhancing the student experience. These centres include the Women's Centre, Pride Centre, Help Centre, and Food Centre. The USSU centres are open to all students, and provide resources, support and services in a warm, positive atmosphere.

Food Centre

The Food Centre provides emergency food hampers to students in need, and the CHEP Good Food Box to the campus community.

Emergency Food Hampers are provided to students from the Saskatoon Food Bank. Students simply need a valid Saskatchewan health card and university student card. The hampers are available for pickup from the USSU Food Centre. On average 6 hampers are given out each month.

The CHEP Good Food Box provides top-quality, fresh, nutritious food at an affordable price. Subscribers place their orders every second Monday. The following Wednesday, the orders are available for pick up at the USSU main office.

The Food Centre runs a weekly Fresh Market, where fresh fruit, vegetables, and snacks, are sold to students in a central location at reduced prices. This program helps students make smart, healthy, eating decisions at a price they can afford. The centre also organizes Trick or Eat which takes place on Halloween night. The event collects non perishable food items for the Saskatoon Food Bank. The event was a success this year with over 7000 lbs of food collected by over 150 student volunteers.

Help Centre

The Help Centre is committed to providing information, referrals and personal support to students. USSU Help Centre Peer Support program offers support and referrals regarding sexual health, queer issues, academic issues, suicide, pregnancy and other student issues. They are available by appointment and on a walk in basis during centre hours.

The USSU Help Centre offers many other services to help students on a daily basis. We offer an Exam File, free condoms, candy, a kitchenette, maps, transit info, friendly faces, a positive space and provide support and community to students.

Pride Centre

The Pride Centre provides a friendly and open environment for people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. The Pride Centre supplies information on safe sex, community organizations, as well as free condoms, latex gloves, dental dams, and female condoms. The centre also organizes and offers information on local and national Queer news and community LBGTT2IQQ events. Some of the key events planned by the centre include, Queerapalooza, Ally Week, Transgender Day of Remembrance, and Carnival of Sex.

Women's Centre

The Women's Centre offers safe, dynamic, comfortable, positive space to organize around feminism and activism. The Women's Centre hosts/participates in major events throughout the year: Take Back the Night, Sexual Assault Awareness Week, Who Needs Feminism?, The National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women, V-Day, and International Women's Day.
