It also serves to protect and maintain the integrity of quality accessible public education.

President's Message

Kehan Fu

On behalf of the University of Saskatchewan Students' Union (USSU), I would like to extend my warmest welcome to all USSU Members to the heart of Treaty 6 Territory. This year-end report summarizes some of the major accomplishments for the 2016-2017 term.

In the Operations and Finance Portfolio, VP Emmanuel Barker dedicated this year to improving the user-accessibility of USSU student services. The USSU has also expanded its array of financial support and resources for student program/initiative sponsorship, student financial aid, and internationalization projects. The USSU has been actively involved with the development of the Usafe Safety App, as well the campus Sexual Assault Policy. VP Barker was extremely active dealing with Saskatoon Transit and advocating for students.

In the VP Academic Portfolio, VP Brooke Malinoski maintained her commitment to student academic advocacy. The USSU streamlined the process for recording and processing student academic grievances. VP Malinoski has consistently pushed for the development of an ombudsperson-office within the Vice-Provost Teaching and Learning's office. The USSU has partnered with the Graduate Student Association to develop a Grad- Undergraduate Mentorship program. The program connects undergraduate students who are interested in pursuing graduate studies with qualified graduate students in similar fields of interest through mentorship. The USSU continued its advocacy towards Open Resources, culminating in an Open Textbooks campaign. VP Malinoski has also hosted a variety student-engagement based events, including Yoga in the Bowl and the Last Lecture Series.

A collaboration between the VP Academic and VP Operations & Finance portfolios resulted in several key initiatives. VP Barker and VP Malinoski hosted the 2016-2017 USSU on Air weekly radio show with CFR 90.5 FM community radio. The weekly segment highlighted campus and in particular, student-oriented events and initiatives. In December, the USSU released its Tuition Policy in anticipation of the finalization of 2016-2017 tuition fees.

The USSU has engaged in extensive tuition consultation process throughout the 2016-2017 term. In their respective membership on governance committees - including Planning and Priorities, Provost Committee on Integrated Planning (PCIP), Student Forum, Teaching, Learning, and Academic Resources (TLARC), and Scholarships and Awards - the USSU advocated towards the comprehensive strategies towards improving the accessibility, affordability, and prediction of a university education. Student consultation followed, with engagements with University Students' Council, Student Forum, and with constituency and college groups.

Through the VP Student Affairs portfolio, VP Renata Huyghebaert completed the official signing of the Sustainability Memorandum of Understanding with President Stoicheff. This Memorandum strengthens the commitment of the USSU and the President's Office to greater advocacy, resources allocation, and campus engagement on issues of social, economic, and environmental sustainability. A new sustainability fund was created by the USSU Sustainability Committee in collaboration with the Office of Sustainability, with the goal of providing financial support for student-led sustainability initiatives. VP Huyghebaert expanded the USSU's involvement in Sexual Assault Awareness with her extensive involvement in the #UsaskReact campaign - part of this year's Sexual Assault Awareness Week (SAAW). In regards to Student Housing, the USSU initiated an Ad-Hoc Committee examining the needs of student housing, especially as it pertains to the National Housing Strategy. VP Huyghebaert maintained the USSU's commitment to student wellness through her work on the Wellness Strategy Team, lobbying for student spaces and "de-stress" facilities, including consultation throughout the Murray Library Transformation Plan. The USSU hosted the first-ever Women in Leadership, bringing together students, faculty, staff, senior leadership, community organizers, community organizers, and industry representative for their overwhelming support for of Women in Leadership. The Week celebrated female leadership, achievement, and success across the community. VP Huyghebaert and the International Student Affairs Committee contributed significantly to several key initiatives throughout the year, including consultation on the U of S Internationalization Blueprint, and the re-formation of the International Student Association.

In the Presidential Portfolio, I attempted to improve outreach and communication with stakeholders. Several key initiatives, including a bi-weekly Face-to-Face program gave the USSU executive an opportunity to connect and receive direct feedback from students in every college. I created a "Presidential Address" video series, which provided a platform to announce key USSU initiatives and updates. Working together with the executive team, we organized two key meetings with the Association of Constituency Presidents to foster a stronger relationship with the student groups representing key student constituencies. The External Affairs Committee and I kickstarted the #UsaskMatters campaign in early March. The campaign consisted of a rally, various media appearances, a live Q&A following the provincial budget, the re-emphasis of our tuition policy recommendation via various mediums, and a Town Hall hosted with the University Provost. The purpose of the campaign was to educate the student body and lobby the provincial government regarding the importance of funding post-secondary education.

Ultimately, everything we do leads back to the student experience and it is important that the provincial government realizes the value of post-secondary education and creates a more accessible and affordable educational experience in order for students to succeed in Saskatchewan.

It has been an immense privilege working with the campus community and I give my sincerest thanks for allowing me to serve undergraduate students this past year!

General Manager's Message

Caroline Cottrell

Undergraduate students at the University of Saskatchewan it is with great pleasure that I am writing the General Manager's Annual Report for 2016-17.

Last year I reflected on the wonderful job being done by the staff of the USSU and while I am not going to traverse that path again this year, it is only because that which I wrote then still applies fully today. The stability, the dedication, and the hard work of the USSU staff – permanent, casual, temporary, or contract – is a source of inspiration.

Also inspiring to me this year was the intelligence and thoughtfulness of our University Students' Council (USC). I work very closely with Council and have been truly inspired on many occasions by the sophistication of their understanding of what needs to be done. In the early winter of 2016, the USSU proposed to spend money from the Infrastructure Fund to upgrade the last set of washrooms in Place Riel and to do a major facelift to Louis'. Moreover, in a surprise move, and following a rigorous and spirited discussion USC not only approved the money we had requested but added an extra $100,000 to go specifically towards lighting and furniture for the Louis' project. And although strictly speaking this does not belong here since the project was both started and completed after the end of the fiscal year, it turned out to be a huge success.

Much time, then, was invested in the second half of our year working with senior staff, the Executive, the Louis' managers, and with Strata Development who undertook project design and management. But that didn't mean we neglected other parts of the organization. In January, in concert with the Women's Centre, we hosted a series of workshops with Dr. Marie Lovrod, a professor of English and Women and Gender Studies, to increase awareness of and sensitivity to women's issues. These were well attended and well received.

Earlier in our fiscal year, we also undertook a major review of the USSU's Bylaw to ensure that it remains internally coherent, that it is keeping with Non-Profit Corporation Act, and that it allows for appropriate alignment of policies with governing documents. This was undertaken, in part, by our Chief Returning Officer, who consulted on the elections and ethics portions of the document. I will continue to recommend that we do a systematic review once every five or six years.

Most importantly the USSU continued to deliver a significant number of very high-quality services to undergraduate students and the university community in particular: U-Pass, Health and Dental, Fresh Market, Information Centre, Notary and Commissioner of Oath service, Women's Centre, Pride Centre, Help Centre, Food Centre, Studentcrew and Safewalk, Welcome Week, Survival Calendar, XL Print and Design, and of course the excellent relationships we continue to maintain with all the tenants in Place Riel and in the Memorial Union Building. Under the watchful eye of some very talented managers, our operations have continued to embrace best practice and to remain as nimble and adaptable as possible in the face of changing demographics, financial, and innovative realities. It is a great team to lead and I continue to be enormously proud of the way in which all our staff shows up to serve undergraduate students at the University of Saskatchewan.

USSU Operations

Louis’

Louis’ continued to be the primary gathering place on campus for students to eat, drink, and see live music over the past year from a diverse menu. Louis’ served thousands of students, staff, and faculty, from a diverse menu during busy lunch rushes, and dinners. Nightly promotions and weekly events also continued to be well attended.

Louis’ remains to be proud of the many sustainable facets of the operation. They exclusively feature eighteen draught beers from Saskatchewan brewers. Louis’ also features locally produced spirits, and uses only compostable take out containers and cutlery. Louis’ has also been working with the U of S Rooftop garden to develop a plan to source ingredients for the Louis’ menus beginning in the upcoming year.

Despite a continued economic downturn that plagued the food and beverage industry, Louis’ stayed to be the host to hundreds of special events throughout the year. Among the list of events were, dozens of student functions, weddings, banquets, and parties over the course of the year.

Louis’ also worked hard to grow business outside of the Memorial Union Building with numerous catered event orders across campus. Louis’ also continued to provide food and beverage services at Griffiths Stadium for events ranging from Huskie Football and soccer, to track and field meets.

Louis’ Loft

Louis’ Loft remained an extremely popular destination for students and special event clients over the past year. The operation continues to be a busy coffee shop during the day featuring equitably sourced coffee and teas, nitro coffee, and a wide variety of specialty coffees, all from local suppliers. In addition to coffee, Louis’ Loft offers local draught beers, and spirits as well as wines. Louis’ Loft food menu also continued to evolve with a variety of premium paninis, sandwiches, salads, baked goods, and snacks.

As a special event venue, Louis’ Loft saw demand grow for the welcoming space. Student groups, campus departments, weddings, other organizations, and booked the Loft space for their special events, banquets, and functions throughout the year.

XL Print & Design

XL Print & Design thrived in its first year after relocating to the main floor of Place Riel. Sales increased by 42% from the previous year, as the operation grew its list of clients and expanded their services even further. In order to accommodate the rise in business, and better serve clients, a part-time Print Assistant was added to the operation to compliment the two full-time staff.

XL Print & Design continues to offer wide format printing, colour copying, and graphic design to hundreds of clients. They carry various types of media such as matte paper, photo gloss, vinyl, canvas, and sticker paper. They also offer finishing services such as mounting, laminating, and binding to their clients.

Information Centre

The Information Centre, located in Upper Place Riel continues to be the first stop for students and visitors to campus. Whether it is for transit information, or directions the Information Centre is an integral part of the University of Saskatchewan Students’ Union and is a highly utilized service that attracts thousands of customers per year.

The Information Centre is proud to offer U-PASS (universal transit pass) for both undergraduate and graduate students, table and kiosk rentals, campus directory, faxing, lost and found, Notary and Commissioner of Oaths services, locker rentals, printing credit, evening parking passes, Ticketmaster, and general information.

USSU Centres

The University of Saskatchewan Students’ Union operates a number of centres aimed at enhancing the student experience. The USSU centres are open to all students and provide resources, support, and services in a warm, positive atmosphere.

Food Centre

The Food Centre works to educate students about healthy food choices and strives to aid students with food security issues. The centre provides emergency food hampers to students in need, and the CHEP Good Food Box to the campus community. Emergency food hampers are provided to students from the Saskatoon Food Bank. Students simply need a valid Saskatchewan health card and university student card. The CHEP Good Food Boxes, offered by the centre provide top-quality, fresh, nutritious food at an affordable price. Subscribers place their orders every second Monday for pick up on Wednesdays.

The Food Centre runs a weekly Fresh Market, where fresh fruit, vegetables, and snacks, are sold to students in a central location at reduced prices. This program helps students make smart, healthy, eating decisions at a price they can afford. In addition to the fresh items, the market expanded this year to include spices and meal packs that feature ingredients and recipes that feed four people at sustainable prices.

The centre also organizes Trick or Eat, which takes place on Halloween night. The event collects non-perishable food items for the Saskatoon Food Bank. The event was a success this year with over 4000 kilograms of food collected by over some 100 student volunteers.

Help Centre

The Help Centre is committed to providing information, referrals, and personal support to students. They offer an exam file, free condoms, free hygiene products, a kitchenette, maps, information on a variety of topics, friendly faces, a positive space, and provide support and community to students. The Help Centre Peer Support program offers support and referrals regarding sexual health, academic issues, suicide, pregnancy, and other student issues. They are available by appointment and on a walk-in basis during centre hours.

The Help Centre hosts/participates in major events throughout the year including Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training, Mental Health Support Group, and Mental Health Awareness Week.

This past year was the first year that the centre was located on the main floor of the Memorial Union Building. The new space proved very welcoming to students and provided a great atmosphere for the programs and services offered by the centre. This was also the first year that students could access the exam file via a computer on the main floor of Place Riel. This improved location provided unprecedented access to exams, which led to record usage for the service.

Pride Centre

The Pride Centre is a welcoming and celebratory campus community. The centre provides a friendly environment with a diverse group of people of all sexual orientations and gender identities in an open and progressive environment that advocates, celebrates, and affirms sexual and gender diversity.

The Pride Centre supplies information on safe sex, as well as free condoms, latex gloves, dental dams, and female condoms. The centre also organizes and offers information on local and national Queer news, community organizations, and community events. Some of the key events planned for the centre include Queerapalooza, Ally Week, Asexuality Awareness Week, Transgender Day of Remembrance, and Carnival of Sex.

Women’s Centre

The Women's Centre is a safe, dynamic, comfortable, positive space to organize around feminism. This was the first year for the centre in their new location in room 103 of the Memorial Union Building. The new location allowed more space for resources, discussion groups, and events that served the campus community.

The USSU Women's Centre continues to take a positive and proactive approach to educating and informing the campus community about issues affecting women. The centre strives to provide a safe and positive environment to promote equality while recognizing and celebrating differences within our diverse and dynamic community.

The Women's Centre hosts/participates in major events throughout the year including: Take Back the Night, Sexual Assault Awareness Week, Who Needs Feminism?, The National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women, and International Women's Day.

REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS ON THE SUMMARY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

To the Members of University of Saskatchewan Students' Union

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of University of Saskatchewan Students' Union, which comprise the balance sheet as at April 30, 2017, the statements of earnings, deficiency and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes, comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on our judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of University of Saskatchewan Students' Union as at April 30, 2017, and its results of operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.
