General Manager's Message

Caroline Cottrell

In my last report, I spoke extensively about the renovations which had been undertaken in the Memorial Union Building with the refurbishment of Louis' and the significant upgrade to the building, as well as the introduction of new furniture into Place Riel. I am pleased to note that these renovations have proved to be an excellent investment and that the businesses to which some of the renovations are attached continue to serve students, staff, and others in the community to the same high standard our patrons have come to expect.

Nevertheless, we did have some unfortunate news early in our year when the Campus Computer Store, formerly located in lower Place Riel, gave us notice that they were closing the shop and vacating. That left us with 3500 square feet, which needed to be re-purposed and to which we needed to attract new tenants. Very early on, we were able to secure an anchor tenant in the central space in the form of Campus Vision. Bringing them into Place Riel also furthered our original vision of the renovated space (2011) as the non-athletic and non-academic hub of campus, in partnership with Health and Wellness on the third and fourth floors.

However, 2018- 2019 was not all smooth sailing. As many people know, the USSU had a troubled election in the spring. This was eventually resolved, and in October, we saw the election of a new President, Rollin Baldhead, who was the fourth Indigenous president to lead the USSU. Over the subsequent six months, we all worked hard to ensure our attention was firmly on filling the various undergraduate student needs situated within our mandate.

Most students are very familiar with the USSU's U-Pass program, as well as with our Health and Dental coverage through our brokers, Studentcare, but perhaps not so familiar in a direct sense is the work we do with campus clubs. Through its ratification process, the USSU provides insurance for campus clubs and provides them with two essential things: the ability to book space for meetings and events on campus; and, funding for events up to $1000.00 per club per fiscal year. Moreover, students can host events in Louis' or Louis' Loft and the North Concourse of Place Riel without paying the rental fee for these venues. In the normal course of events, we ratify between 150 and 175 clubs and through them, provide direct benefit to thousands of students.

The other matter I wish to highlight is the strong state of the USSU's finances. Through prudent management, safe and secure investments, reasonable salary increases, and general organizational stability, we are in a stable position now and going into the future. This is true of both our operational costs and of the Infrastructure Fee, which is collected primarily to pay for the mortgage to cover the earlier renovation and expansion of Place Riel. Our financial stability is what allows us to provide funding to campus clubs, to operate our various centres, to help students with food insecurity, and to provide a safe space and support for all students regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, ethnic background, religious affiliation, or any other aspect of their circumstances.

I also wish to highlight the wonderful and dedicated staff who work for the USSU. At any given time, the USSU has 120 or so employees, most of whom are students. Employing students is a mandate we take seriously. We also have an exceptional core staff, some of whom have been working for the Union in excess of 20 years, led by a highly experienced senior management team whose tenure with the organization has been lengthy. This stability and continuity gives us historical perspective and clarity, but it has also provided each of us the ability to work with a wide range of Executive and Council members through their offices, or through the committees on which staff members sit as advisors. It remains a great privilege to be the General Manager of this organization and to continue the work to support and enhance the undergraduate student experience at the University of Saskatchewan.

Louis'

Louis' continued to be the primary gathering place on campus for students to eat, drink, and see live music over the past year. Louis' served thousands of students, staff, and faculty from a diverse menu during busy lunch rushes and dinners. Nightly promotions and weekly events also continued to be well attended. Louis' is particularly proud of its efforts working with ratified campus clubs. Our venue played host to 136 campus club events over the year, saving groups over $43,000, and helped create a vibrant campus culture.

Louis' remains proud of the many sustainable facets of the operation. They exclusively feature eighteen draught beers from Saskatchewan brewers. Louis' also features locally produced spirits and partners with Saskatchewan producers for beverage service at Griffith Stadium. These efforts pour hundreds of thousands of dollars into the Saskatchewan economy. They also removed plastic straws from the operation, uses only compostable takeout containers and cutlery, composts all coffee grounds, and uses reusable plastic cups for all concerts and event nights.

Louis' was encouraged by the rise in revenues this past year. Busy lunchtimes and an increased number of special events bookings, including student functions, weddings, banquets, led to the growth in revenue. They also worked hard to grow the business outside of the Memorial Union Building with numerous catered event orders across campus. Louis' also secured a new three-year contract to provide food and beverage services at Griffiths Stadium.

Louis' Loft

Louis' Loft remained a trendy destination for students and special event clients over the past year. The operation continues to be a busy coffee shop during the day, featuring equitably sourced coffee and teas, all from local suppliers. In addition to coffee, Louis' Loft offers local draught beers and spirits as well as wines. On the food side of the operation, we remained a popular destination with a variety of premium sandwiches, salads, baked goods, smoothies, and snacks available to customers. This year saw the Loft nominated for seven Planet S food awards and a victory in the Best Place to Eat on Campus category.

As a special event venue, Louis' Loft continued to see demand grow for the welcoming space. Student groups, campus departments, corporate clients, weddings, and others booked the Loft space for their special events, banquets, and functions throughout the year.

XL Print & Design

XL Print & Design continued to thrive in its location on the main floor of Place Riel, with sales growing despite sweeping changes to the campus print environment. The operation continues to offer wide format printing, colour copying, and graphic design to hundreds of clients across the province and beyond. They also provide finishing services such as mounting, laminating, and binding to their clients.

The operation saw revenues rise to record numbers as they increased their list of clients and expanded their services even further. The staff worked diligently to produce high-quality work with industry-leading turnaround times for their customers.

Information Centre

The Information Centre, located in Upper Place Riel, continues to be the first stop for students and visitors to campus. Whether it is for transit information or directions, the Information Centre is an integral part of the University of Saskatchewan Students' Union. The Information Centre is a highly utilized service that attracts thousands of customers per year.

The Information Centre is proud to issue U-PASS (universal transit pass) for both undergraduate and graduate students, table and kiosk rentals, faxing, lost and found, Notary and Commissioner of Oaths services, locker rentals, evening parking passes, and general information.

USSU Centres

The University of Saskatchewan Students' Union operates several centres aimed at enhancing the student experience. The USSU centres are open to all students and provide resources, support, and services in a warm, positive atmosphere.

Food Centre

The Food Centre works to educate students about healthy food choices and strives to aid students with food security issues. The centre provides emergency food hampers to students in need, and the CHEP Good Food Box to the campus community. Emergency food hampers are provided to students from the Saskatoon Food Bank. Students need a valid Saskatchewan health card and university student card to access this service. The CHEP Good Food Boxes, offered by the centre, provides top-quality, fresh, nutritious food at an affordable price. Subscribers place their orders every second Monday for pick up on Wednesdays.

In addition to these services, the Food Centre has developed a new program this past year. U-Food is a self-sustaining emergency food hamper program that is available to students. The program allows students to order a hamper online comprised of items of their choosing. They will be able to access the program up to four times each term.

The Food Centre continues to run a weekly Fresh Market, where fresh fruit, vegetables, and snacks are sold to students in a central location at reduced prices. In addition to the fresh items, the market also includes non-perishable items such as spices, pasta, and lentils. This program helps students make smart, healthy, eating decisions at a price they can afford.

The centre also organizes Trick or Eat, which takes place on Halloween night. The event collects non-perishable food items for the Saskatoon Food Bank. The event was a success this year with over 3000 lbs of food collected by dozens of student volunteers

Help Centre

The Help Centre is committed to providing information, referrals, and personal support to students. They offer an exam file in multiple locations, free condoms, free hygiene products, a kitchenette, maps, information on a variety of topics, friendly faces, a positive space, and provide support and community to students. The Help Centre, Peer Support program, offers support and referrals regarding sexual health, academic issues, suicide, pregnancy, and other student issues. They are available by appointment and on a walk-in basis during centre hours.

The Help Centre hosts/participates in major events throughout the year, including Mental Health Awareness Week, Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training, and Mental Health Support Group. This year the centre also worked diligently planning two sold-out Naloxone Training sessions for the campus community.

Pride Centre

The Pride Centre is a welcoming and celebratory campus community. The centre provides a friendly environment with a diverse group of people of all sexual orientations and gender identities in an open and progressive environment that advocates, celebrate and affirms sexual and gender diversity.

The Pride Centre supplies information on safe sex, as well as free condoms, latex gloves, dental dams, and more. The centre also organizes and offers information on local and national Queer news, community organizations, and community events. Some of the key events planned for the centre include Queerapalooza, Ally Week, Asexuality Awareness Week, Transgender Day of Remembrance, and Carnival of Sex. In addition, the centre runs a number groups nights, including Stitch and Bitch, Gender Coup d'état, Gaymer Night, and Pride Night. These nights help build community and allow students to discuss vital issues facing the community.

Women's Centre

The Women's Centre is a safe, dynamic, comfortable, positive space to organize around feminism. This welcoming area located on the main floor of the Memorial Union Building has ample space for resources, discussion groups, and events that served the campus community.

The USSU Women's Centre continues to take a positive and proactive approach to educate and informing the campus community about issues affecting women. The centre strives to provide a safe and positive environment to promote equality while recognizing and celebrating differences within our diverse and dynamic community.

The Women's Centre hosts/participates in major events throughout the year including Take Back the Night, Sexual Assault Awareness Week, Who Needs Feminism?, The National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women, and International Women's Day. The Women's Centre also continued to run the Free Menstrual Products program, where free products are distributed to washrooms in USSU buildings. The centre hosts various group nights, including Feminist Media Studies, Because We are Women, and Talking Back. The nights focus on building community and discussing various issues impacting women.
