

Policy Name:	Women's Centre Policy
Category:	USSU Centres	Policy #	CENTRE-4

1. Preamble

The University of Saskatchewan Students' Union (USSU) exists to represent, serve, and support the academic and non-academic needs of undergraduate students of the University of Saskatchewan through accountable, dynamic, and unified leadership. It also serves to protect and maintain the integrity of quality accessible public education.

All services of the USSU Women's Centre must be encompassed by the USSU's mission statement and guided by the values of innovation; integrity; mutual respect; professionalism; service; social, economic, and environmental responsibility; teamwork; and trust.

This policy is intended to outline the principles which guide the operation and structure of the USSU Women's Centre.

2. Mission

The mission of the USSU Women's Centre is to take a vibrant and proactive approach to educating and informing the campus community about intersectional feminist issues and issues affecting all women with diverse identities. The USSU Women's Centre strives to provide a safe and positive environment to promote equality and equity while recognizing and celebrating differences within our diverse and dynamic community.

3. Mandate

The USSU Women's Centre is open to all genders, and serves as a space to build community, discuss, and organize around ongoing feminist issues. The USSU Women's Centre facilitates educational workshops and promotes issues relevant to gender equity, equality and pro-choice issues on campus. In addition to providing regular programming and basic services, including peer support, campus and community resources, social events, and discussion groups. The USSU Women's Centre organizes and facilitates several annual events and awareness campaigns.

4. Accountability

The USSU Women's Centre Coordinator is responsible for the operation of the USSU Women's Centre and will ensure that the services offered effectively meet the needs of students. The USSU Women's Centre Coordinator shall report regularly to the USSU Business and Services Manager.

5. Volunteers

5.1 Criteria

- Volunteers must be registered undergraduate students at the University of Saskatchewan.

5.2 A Volunteer is a Person Who:

- Has completed a USSU Women's Centre Application and interview process; and
- Has been appropriately trained as a front-line volunteer and peer supporter by the USSU Women's Centre Coordinator.

5.3 General Duties and Responsibilities of a Volunteer

- To be trained in basic peer supporting, with additional training available to those interested;
- To attend USSU Women's Centre meetings when scheduled;
- To attend all USSU Women's Centre training sessions;
- To provide the services of the USSU Pride Centre in a non-discriminatory manner in accordance with their training; and
- To maintain regularly scheduled work hours in the USSU Pride Centre.
- Duties and responsibilities of all volunteers are to be determined by the USSU Help Centre Coordinator as they are subject to change.

5.4 Volunteer Concerns

- If a volunteer has a concern about anything in the USSU Women's Centre, the first course of action is to speak with the USSU Women's Centre Coordinator.
- If a volunteer has a concern about the USSU Women's Centre

Coordinator, a complaint can be lodged with the USSU Business and Services Manager.

6. Centre Operations

- 6.1 The USSU Women's Centre's primary responsibility is to carry out the USSU Women's Centre's mandate and programs. The USSU Women's Centre Coordinator will confirm details with the USSU Business and Service Manager and communicate relevant duties to centre volunteers.
- 6.2 Should volunteer actions be in violation of such requirements and duties, the USSU Women's Centre Coordinator will follow a three-step disciplinary process after consulting with the USSU Business and Services Manager.

7. Promotion of the Centre

All promotional material created by the office will be approved by the USSU Business and Services Manager and/or the Communications and Marketing Manager. All material must carry the current USSU logo.

8. Policy Changes

- 8.1 USSU policies are reviewed regularly and changes are implemented to reflect new information, structure, or other modifications. The USSU Women's Centre Coordinator will participate actively in formulating new policy in conjunction with the USSU Business and Services Manager, and may suggest revisions at any time. The revised policy will then be submitted to the Executive Council and, when the revisions are complete, to University Students' Council for final approval.
- 8.2 This policy was approved by the University Students' Council in accordance with the regulations established by the USC for the adoption of policy.
