Current Wording	Proposed Amendment
Composition of the Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Committee 82. (1) The Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Committee is composed of: (a) the Chair of University Students' Council or designate as chair and a non-voting member; (b) three Councillors elected by Council, each representing a different Constituency; (c) The appropriate Senior Manager, who is non-voting and may be required to participate in the proceedings when called upon. (2) The Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Committee shall: (a) administer Part 4 of this Bylaw and hear all complaints filed pursuant to that Part; (b) review all previous documentation on any such complaints as provided by the appropriate Senior Manager; (c) either dismiss the complaint or implement some disciplinary measures or refer the matter to University Council for impeachment; (d) receive an orientation on an annual basis from the appropriate Senior Manager to the purpose and structure of the CEDC and Part 4 of the Bylaw. (3) If a member of the Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Committee is involved in a complaint brought forward, the member shall not participate in the discussion or vote on the particular issue. (a) Council shall elect a replacement CEDC member for the discussion and vote on the issue.	Composition of the Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Committee 82. (1) The Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Committee is composed of: (a) the Chair of University Students' Council or designate as chair and a non-voting member; (b) three Councillors elected by Council, each representing a different Constituency; (c) The appropriate Senior Manager, who is non-voting and may be required to participate in the proceedings when called upon. (2) The Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Committee shall: (a) administer Part 4 of this Bylaw and hear all complaints filed pursuant to that Part; (b) review all previous documentation on any such complaints as provided by the appropriate Senior Manager; (c) either dismiss the complaint or implement some disciplinary measures or refer the matter to University Students' Council for impeachment; (d) receive an orientation on an annual basis from the appropriate Senior Manager to the purpose and structure of the CEDC and Part 4 of the Bylaw. (3) If a member of the Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Committee is involved in a complaint brought forward, the member shall not participate in the discussion or vote on the particular issue. (a) Council shall elect a replacement CEDC member for the discussion and vote on the issue.